- There is a finding for sufficiency in terms of water quality for drinking water obtained from Woodmen Hills Metropolitan District District which is a Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment, Water Quality Control Division, regulated central water supply. - Radon resistant construction building techniques/practices are encouraged to be used in this area. The EPA has determined that Colorado, and the El Paso County area have potentially higher radon levels than other areas of the country.
- El Paso County Public Health encourages planned walkability of residential communities with sidewalks, walking paths, and bike trails to surrounding neighborhood parks, schools and commercial areas. Walk-ability features promote exercise, help reduce obesity and lower the risk of heart disease.
- El Paso County Public Health requires interior finish plans to be submitted for review and approval prior to commencement of construction.
