SITE DEVELOPMENT PLAN CHECKLIST

Revised: January 2022
Site Development Plan	ant Dian Daview
In order to establish a use or obtain a building permit, in most cases, the LDC requires Site Developme for more complex uses (most often including multi-family, commercial, and industrial uses) to determin the proposed use(s) or structure(s) with the provisions of the LDC, ECM, or any other applicable regula specific land use approvals or permits, and other rules, regulations, codes and ordinances administere Specifically, many of the requiriements for approval of a site development plan can be found in Chapter
The use tables in Chapter 5 of the LDC (Table 5-1 and 5-2) identify when the applicant shall submit a S Plan and when a PCD planner and engineer shall review a Site Development Plan to establish a use o structure. Site Development Plans are approved administratively by the PCD Director, unless otherwis condition of approval.	se meanea by a Minimum Map Contents: Must contain adequate information to determine compliance of the proposed and ECM, as applicable. If inadequate information is provided to determine whether or not the propose conforms to the LDC, more information will be requested. A PUD Development Guide associated with applicable, may require additional information and/or specifications to be addressed with the residentia	ai site pian application. Typically, a parking plan, sign plan, landscape plan, lighting plan, elevation drawings, floor plan, gradin	ng and orosion control plan, and drainage plan are submitted concurrently as a separate plan set.	-
The PCD Director may modify the applicable requirements, including requiring additional items or remo	oving items, based upon the project and site-specific circumstances.	An	plicant	PCD
