Ms Darden,

thank you for acting on my concerns. I know it was short notice as I goofed up on your email contact address.

I am confident that Elite Equine has taken all necessary steps in developing their facility.

Please take my acceptance of the detail in Elite Equine's answers to my questions and my acceptance of their proposal.

I do not have any additional concerns that would fall in the way of the approval of the proposed Equine Rescue services.

Hello Dave,

Dave it was good meeting you.

Thank you for answering my questions. You show that your facility is well thought out and you have taken all necessary steps to ensure the well being of animals in your care.

I am satisfied with your answers and I do not have any additional concerns.

I would very much like to visit your facility at some point in the future when time is available for both of us.

Thanks again for talking with me.

V/R
