The original site development plan PPR2443 was determined not to need a ESQCP. With the removal of the parking lot, the impact is less than the original plan.