Terry,

I am forwarding you this email that is inquiring about the proposed Red Rock Acres Rezone project (File# P2010). The application was just received last week, but we received a couple of comments from neighbors before Christmas. I will respond to the email and talk with Elizabeth and have her send me any other comments in support or opposition she might have for the project. Please let me know if you need anything else.

I am a neighbor and I am looking into the new development on Rockbrook/ HWY105 and Red Rock Ranch Rd, this is the parcel number, :7109014003.

I have left a phone number 719229-3643 or this email. I see that they are looking for a water source in our area.

I am interested in where they are in the process of approval for the development, and where do neighboring HOA's weigh in?
