

Communication has occurred with Cherokee Metropolitan District, specifically Kevin Brown the General Manager. It has been determined that while there is an existing easement and maintenance agreement in place, it is mutually beneficial to modernize these agreements. The applicant and owner will continue these conversations and will record new agreements prior to recording the subdivision plan. The applicant and owner fully anticipate this being a condition of approval, should the final signed agreement not be in place prior to the BoCC hearing, and have no objections.