WIRE FRAUD SECURITY

Because of you...we obsess over cyber security!

Cyber fraud and email hacking are real and growing threats, with the potential to affect anyone. Fraudsters regularly attempt to access individual email accounts and monitor the life of a real estate transaction. At the time funds are due to escrow, fraudsters intercept wiring information and change that information without the sender's or recipient's knowledge, resulting in the funds being sent to an outside account controlled by the fraudsters.

To protect you and reduce your risk, WFG has implemented the following procedures:

Outgoing Wires from WFG to Sellers or Borrowers:

WFG will ask you to provide written instructions on how you want WFG to disburse any funds payable to you at closing. If you choose to have the funds sent to you via wire transfer, before WFG will do so, your banking information will need to be provided to WFG on a signed, notarized form. Of course, you also have the option of having your funds paid to you in the form of a physical check.

Incoming Wires from Buyers or Borrowers to WFG:

For funds that are to be wired by you to WFG, you can either obtain your wire instructions via our MyHome portal, or you may obtain a personal wire access code from your WFG escrow officer and then access WFG's wiring instructions in a secure environment on WFG's website. In addition, prior to wiring any funds, you should always verbally (and not via email) confirm wire instructions with your WFG escrow officer, at a known phone number provided to you by WFG at the outset of the transaction.

Additional Precautions:

As part of WFG's unwavering commitment to safeguarding all consumer data that comes into WFG's possession, all WFG employees are required to complete extensive training on information security and the threat of cybercrimes, and WFG submits to outside audits and regularly conducts extensive internal audits of its technology and operating systems to ensure that those systems have not been and cannot be breached.

By taking the precautions outlined above and remaining vigilant for and immediately reporting any suspicious emails or calls to WFG, you can help ensure that cybercrime does not affect your transaction!

Plain English Privacy Statement for Appraisal, Title & Escrow Customers

WFG believes it is important to protect your privacy and confidences. We recognize and respect the privacy expectations of our customers. We believe that making you aware of how we collect information about you, how we use that information, and with whom we share that information will form the basis for a relationship of trust between us. This Privacy Policy provides that explanation. We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy from time to time.

Williston Financial Group, LLC, WFG National Title Insurance Co. and each of the affiliates listed below (collectively "WFG" or the "WFG Family") are obligated to comply with Federal and state privacy laws. While there are some common requirements to those laws, the definitions and duties differ significantly from law-to-law and state-to-state. A privacy statement drafted to comply with all of the applicable privacy laws and their differing definitions would likely be confusing. Therefore, in an attempt to better communicate our privacy policies, WFG designed this "Plain English" explanation, followed by the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act model form and website links to State-Specific Privacy Notices in order to provide you with the complete, legal privacy notices and disclosures required under Federal and applicable State Laws.

WFG's primary business is providing appraisal, title insurance and, escrow services for the sale or refinance of real property. This can be a complicated process, involving multiple parties, many of whom have been selected by our customers, each filling a specialized role. In part, you have hired WFG to coordinate and smooth the passage of the information necessary for an efficient settlement or closing.

In the course of this process, WFG collects a significant amount of personal and identifying information about the parties to a transaction, including sensitive items that include but are not limited to: your contact information including email addresses, Social Security numbers, driver's license and, other identification numbers and information; financial, bank and insurance information; information about past and proposed mortgages and loans; about properties you currently or previously owned; your mortgage application package; and the cookie, IP address, and other information captured automatically by computer systems.

Much of this information is gathered from searches of public land records, tax, court and credit records to make certain that any liens, challenges, or title defects are addressed properly. Some of the information that is collected is provided by you, or the computer systems you use. We also may receive information from real estate brokers and agents, mortgage brokers and, others working to facilitate your transaction. We also may receive information from public, private or governmental databases including credit bureaus, 'no-fly' lists, and terrorist 'watch lists', as well as from your lenders and credit bureaus.

What Information is Shared?

WFG DOES NOT SELL any of your information to non-affiliated companies for marketing or any other purpose.

However, some of the same information does get shared with persons inside and outside the WFG Family in order to facilitate and complete your transaction.

For example:

- Information, draft documents, and closing costs will pass back and forth between WFG and your mortgage broker and lender to facilitate your transaction.
- Information, including purchase agreements and amendments, will pass back and forth between WFG and the real estate agents and brokers, the mortgage brokers and lenders, the lawyers and accountants, and others involved in facilitating the transaction.
- WFG may order property searches and examinations from title searchers, abstractors and title plants.
- WFG may use third parties to obtain tax information, lien information, payoff information, condominium and, homeowners' association information and payoff information.
- Third parties may be engaged to prepare documents in connection with your transaction.
- Surveys, appraisals and, inspections may be ordered.

- Within the WFG Family of companies, we may divide up the work to handle each closing in the most efficient manner possible and to meet specific legal and licensing requirements. Certain parts of your closing (for example a search or disbursement) may be handled by another division or company within the WFG Family.
- When it is time for signatures, your complete closing package may be sent to a notary, remote online notary, or notary service company who will arrange to meet with you to sign documents. The notary will, in turn, send signed copies back to us along with copies of your driver's license or other identity documents usually by mail, UPS, Federal Express or another courier service.
- Your deed, mortgage and other documents required to perfect title will be recorded with the local recorder of deeds.
- In some cases, we use an outside service to coordinate the recording or electronic-recording of those instruments, and they will receive copies of your deeds, mortgages and other recordable documents to process, scan and send on to the recording office.
- Various government agencies get involved. The law requires us to provide certain information to the IRS, the US Treasury, local and state tax authorities and other governmental agencies.

You have a choice in the selection of a mortgage broker, lender, real estate broker or agent and others that make up your 'transaction team.' Information flows to and from the members of the transaction team you have selected to facilitate an efficient transaction for you.

When WFG selects and engages a third-party provider, we limit the scope of the information shared with that third party to the information reasonably necessary for that service provider to provide the requested services. With most, we have entered into express agreements in which they expressly commit to maintain a WFG customer's information in strict confidence and use the information only for purposes of providing the requested services, clearing title, preventing fraud and addressing claims under our title insurance policies.
