

Covenants and related documentation will be provided after the CAO issues a recommendation regarding water, as those recommendations often include conditions that affect the content of the covenants.