

Falcon Marketplace, Lot 4 – Discount Tire

No permanent stormwater control measures will be located on site for this proposed development. Two regional extended detention basins have been proposed as part of the master development for the Falcon Marketplace Subdivision which will provide permanent water quality and detention facilities for the entire master development.